Near to the Heart of God

You will keep in perfect peace him whose mind ... trusts in you — Isaiah 26:3 NIV

1. There is a place of quiet rest, Near to the heart of God,
2. There is a place of comfort sweet, Near to the heart of God,
3. There is a place of full release, Near to the heart of God,

A place where sin cannot molest, Near to the heart of God.
A place where we our Savior meet, Near to the heart of God.
A place where all is joy and peace, Near to the heart of God.

O Jesus, blest Redeemer, Sent from the heart of God,

Hold us who wait before Thee Near to the heart of God.

This chorus from a longer song has become a popular sung prayer for the presence of the Holy Spirit. Easily memorized, it makes a very suitable sung response at appropriate points during a series of prayer concerns or with repeated singing can open or close a time of prayer.

Doxology

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line and a bass line. The music is a simple, hymn-like setting with a steady rhythm.

Praise God, from whom all bless - ings flow; praise Christ, all peo - ple praise Tri - une God, whom we a - dore. A - men.

This text adapts part of a traditional Irish prayer associated with St. Patrick (see also no. 6). Such a prayer for protection is known as a lorica, from a Latin word for "breastplate" or "armor." It is set to a Gaelic melody that gained wide popularity in the 1970s.
